

Boxted Methodist Silver Band Friends scheme

Followers of the Band, friends, family, church members and concertgoers are invited to join our new Friends scheme.

Those who support the Band's activity in the local community and understand the relationship with the Chapel that underpins it will know fundraising is always a vital part of the calendar. Through our Friends scheme we hope to raise awareness of the Band's work, keep everyone informed of new developments and dates for the diaries, and of course attract new audiences.

Friends will receive a termly newsletter, which will include -

- Personnel updates
- Photographs from recent events
- Musings from the conductor and players
- Invitations to special events
- Notice of forthcoming engagements
- News of the Band's achievements
- Anything else you might like to know!

We will acknowledge your support on our website and where possible in print. Friends will also contribute to the Band's library and new scores will be inscribed accordingly, thus offering the opportunity to suggest pieces you would like to hear the Band play in the future.

Annual subscription to the scheme is through a suggested minimum donation of just £5, renewed each calendar year. If you would like to make a more sustaining commitment, lifetime membership is offered for £50.
