

Boxted Methodist Silver Band

January 2011

Welcome to our first ever newsletter!

Regular followers will know that December is usually the Band's busiest month and 2010 was no exception. With our first Christmas engagement as early as 25 November members were then out playing carols in Boxted and the surrounding area every night from 9 December to Christmas Eve, with blistering temperatures as low as minus 4.5°C!

Thanks to everyone who generously donated their time and money over this period and contributed towards our annual donation to Action for Children.

As a reward for all our hard work, Jenna organised a Christmas meal at the Yew Tree and photographs will be uploaded onto the website shortly.

Sunday 12 December – Outside Fred's on Straight Road

It was some achievement to get round every house in the village as well as take part in services in the Chapel and at Wimpole Road Methodist Church. We also gave a concert in the Village Hall this year, with a varied programme that was fun to play and well received by the audience... especially our young guest percussionists!

Forthcoming engagements

The year began with a band service by Ruth on the theme of journeying with God. The Band opened with what one long-standing member described as our "best ever" performance of the march Sons of the Brave, later playing William Himes' meditation All that I am - fast becoming a firm favourite - and the well-known chorus And the Glory of the Lord from Handel's Messiah.

Our next service - Sunday 6 February at 3pm - will be taken by David Atkins, who visited the Chapel a couple of times last year and has also invited the band to play at this wedding this coming April.

Saturday 12 March is another important date for your diaries, when the Band will perform for Mayor of Colchester, Councillor Sonia Lewis. Sonia and her husband Keith heard us play at a regional Korean Veteran's event in July and invited us to give a concert in aid of their chosen charities. This will take place in Langham Village Hall from 7.30pm - full details available on the website shortly.
